CHESS VICTORY TO CAPTAIN SMOKE?

First Tournament at the Columbia Club Has Nearly Ended.

THE RULES ARE ENFORCED

Dr. Paul Schweitzer Still Has a Chance But Probably Will Get Second.

Captain Samuel A. Smoke, chairman of the house committee of the Columbia club, has practically won the chess tournament started by him two weeks ago. Smoke has played all of his games, while Dr. Paul Schweitzer, his nearest competitor, has yet to play ten games of which he can lose only two in order to win. Of the twenty-five games played, Mr. Smoke has won 17 1-2 games and lost 7 1-2 games. Prof. Schweitzer has lost 5 1-2 games.

Six members are playing in the tourney which is the first of its kind organized by the Columbia club. The other players are: Curtis B. Rollins, member of the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri; the Rev. Dr. W. W. Elwang, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Columbia; Judge John D. Lawson, dean of the School of Law, and Prof. Percy Bordwell, a member of the law faculty.

No regular schedule of games was planned other than that each member had to play five games with every other member. Any time was game-time. When two players met in the club parlor and found out that they had not played the required number of games together, another player was called upon to act as referee and a match game was begun. Most of these games were played in the afternoon when the chess enthusiasts were in the habit of gathering at the club. The only difference between these games and the ordinary "skittle" games is that the rules were strictly observed. If a piece was touched by a player that player was required to move his piece as the rules demanded.

"Because of this," said Captain Smoke, "the players soon learned to play more carefully and this improved the quality of the games. I have organized this tournament more as a preliminary to a larger tournament later. A set of chess men will probably be awarded to the winner as a prize."

According to Captain Smoke, Columbia has some good chess players. On several occasions, he says that Columbia men have distinguished themselves in the chess world. As an example he mentioned B. M. Anderson, Jr., now a teacher at Rolla, who at the age of 18 was among the best players in the state; and Henry T. Moore, a member of the Yale chess team. Mr. Moore was a graduate of the University of Missouri, and went to Yale to take post-graduate work. He was Yale's second strongest player in the Intercollegiate Chess tournament. Captain Smoke is a retired United States army officer.

SOCIETY

THE Sigma Chi fraternity gave its annual dance at Entertainment hall last night. The room represented a miniature China town. The ceiling was covered with blue and gold, the fraternity colors. From this hung Chinese festoons and hundreds of Chinese lanterns. Incense was burned during the evening. For the "pin dance" all the lights were turned out except those in a large Sigma Chi cross at the north end of the hall.

The favors for the men were silver match cases with a dragon design. The girls received sandalwood fans. A three-course luncheon was served. The ice cream was moulded as roses, the fraternity flower. The dance cards were of black leather with a Chinese coin on a cord fastened to each.

The chaperones were: Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Judge and Mrs. J. D. Lawson, Mrs. G. B. Dorsey, Miss Laura January, Mrs. J. C. Ogilvie, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. S. G. Sandusky.

Out-of-town guests were: Misses Julia Sandusky, Louise McComb, Laura Dannister, Carolin Webb, Aileen Davidson and Verna Hoge.

STUDENTS IN MIRACLE PLAYS

"Abraham and Isaac" and "Noah's Wife" to Be Given Here April 24.

Two miracle plays, "Abraham and Isaac" and "Noah's Wife," are to be given April 24 in the university auditorium. The plays have been modernized but the mediaeval spirit and settings are to be preserved. R. L. Ramsey, instructor in English, has arranged a mediaeval stage. Students are designing the costumes of the middle ages when the miracle plays were given and T. Carl Whitmer is training the students who are to sing the musical parts. The historical possibilities of the two plays, the combination of the tragic, comic and serio-comic afford an opportunity for students interested in dramatics. The cast follows:

"Abraham and Isaac."

Abraham, W. W. Richeson; Isaac, Mildred Bell; Sara, Hazel Kirk; Doctor, L. B. Hohman; First Angel, Nelle Ramsey; Second Angel, Faye Jarman; Third Angel, Catherine Wells; First Servant, Max Ravitch; Second Servant, Clarence Egelhoff.

"Noah's Wife."

FACULTY MEN IN A GOLF TOURNEY

A Handicap Match is Being Arranged for This Spring.

GOLF STICK THE PRIZE

Qualifying Round is to Be Played About May 15—How They Will Pair

A handicap golf tournament is to be held on the golf course south of Columbia by faculty men of the University of Missouri this spring. A prize, the best golf club in stock, is offered to the winner by Elmer Carey, manager of the University Co-operative Store.

The qualifying round will be played about May 15. A series of three pair matches will be played April 24, May 1 and May 8. The handicapping will be based on the scores made in the preliminaries. The best player and poorest player will be paired, the second best and the second poorest, and so on until all the golfers are paired in the preliminaries. The sum of the strokes of the partners will be taken as the score of the pair. The matches will be scored by points, one point to be given for each hole won and one point for the best medal score on the first nine holes, the second nine holes and the total eighteen holes.

J. A. Gibson will receive the names of those desiring to enter the tournament before April 24. Score cards signed by both players will be received at 720 Maryland place.

A tournament was held on the course last summer and fall. C. C. Eckhardt scored the largest number of points in three matches. His total was sixteen. Dr. Raymond Weeks, now a professor in the University of Illinois, was second with twelve points. Dr. W. J. Monilaw holds the record for the course. His record for nine holes is thirty-seven and for eighteen holes, eighty-two.
